

Physical Science 303 – Quiz 5 Rubric

The answers for each of three problems was a two component vector. One point was awarded for each correct component. For #2, the direction of the vector is arbitrary since the magnitude of the vector is zero.

Comment Legend:

Comment A: The answer has too few or too many significant figures.

Comment B: The answer has no units or the wrong units.